Footnotes

SHOTSKI off to a sharp beginning, made it into the two path prior to arriving at the end of the homestretch, was held in reserve disputing the pace with CHASE TRACKER, cleared that foe and got guided onto the inside route midpoint on the backstretch, showed the way with PRINCE JAMES having assumed the role of primary pursuer from the outside, staved that foe off, was in the final stages of the run around the far turn when called upon for more, responded, enough so as to start the final furlong in possession of his largest lead, saw the runner up whittle away at the deficit in the last eighth, held on well enough long enough to stay in the clear. AJAAWEED away in good order, underwent a three wide trip on the clubhouse bend, tipped one path wider for passage on the subsequent one, was already under a drive coming into the lane, closed the gap in a steadfast manner down the center of the strip, fell short of snatching away the verdict. CHASE TRACKER remained stationed along the rail after the field had been sent off and running, vied for the control with the winner until the midway point on the backstretch, saw that opponent cut over to the rail then contently tracked that rival from the pocket, came under urging cutting the corner into the lane, made no headway. INFORMATIVE off the inside throughout, took up the chase from the three path on the second bend, was still in it stepping onto the head of the stretch, gave way. PRINCE JAMES made contact with ALPHA SIXTY SIX at the start, showed no ill effects and went on to race three wide on turn one, moved closer to the rail shortly after entering the backstretch, prompted the winner thereafter all the way to the quarter pole, went into the lane and folded. ALPHA SIXTY SIX bumped with PRINCE JAMES at the break, worked out a tuck into the two path by the top of the first turn, was in the same path stepping onto the next one, felt the whip by the three-eighths pole, failed to pick it up then backed away down the stretch. CLEON JONES raced towards the inside during the early going, swung two wide onto the backstretch, was just a wide departing it, arrived at the top of the lane and had no rally. FORZA DI ORO shifted over to the rail soon after the start, abandoned it by tipping about three wide onto the backstretch, was more in the two path by the half mile pole, chased from the pace from between rivals from midpoint on the backstretch until three-eighths pole, entered the stretch and gave way. AMENDS off a length the tardiest, was strung out three wide on both turns, failed to reach a contending position.
