Footnotes

GOLDEN CANDY pressed the pace in the three-path outside SIGHT OF HEAVEN, drew even past the five-sixteenths and took over turning for home, and was kept to pressure to 50 yards out. TOMMY SHELBY advanced three then four wide coming off the turn, could not menace the winner but was clearly best of the others. PITCHING ARI raced two then three wide on the turn, and could not threaten. HECKLER'S VETO eyed the leaders along the inside to the turn, but made no advances and dropped back steadily late. SIGHT OF HEAVEN set the pace in the two-path, could not fight off GOLDEN CANDY near the quarter-pole, and faltered through the final furlong.
