Footnotes

CHANCE IT pressed the early pace from the rail, took the lead leaving the half-mile pole, drew clear around the turn, drifted out under right-handed urging in upper stretch then straightened out and widened under strong hand urging. LIAM'S LUCKY CHARM broke sharply, settled into an outside stalking position, was bumped nearing the turn, raced four wide around the bend, was late to switch leads and finished willingly. ABSOLUTE GRIT was bumped at the start, stalked the pace three wide, was bumped again nearing the turn, chased three wide around the bend, lacked a rally and held for the show. NORTHBROOK raced three wide and never threatened. MAN WITH A PLAN set the pace outside of the winner for a quarter, pressed two wide around the turn and retreated nearing the lane. ONE TURN JOHNNY played no factor while racing three wide. TURN ON THE MAGIC was bumped at the start, saved ground and made little further impact.
