Footnotes

FRITZIES FLAME, coaxed from the start, vied between runners early with a narrow lead, drew clear when asked and kept to task. GOLD OF ROSES chased in behind but off the inside, looked for room and managed to split rivals three deep nearing the sixteenth pole to gain the place. TWO STEPPER was reserved racing along the inside early, lacked a bit of room just briefly leaving the turn and again in upper stretch, had switched out five wide by mid-stretch and was running on late. NOBODY KNOWS WHO advanced four wide on the far turn to reach striking distance but could not sustain the effort. SAY HELLO TO HEAT chased from inside but had no extra for the drive. WAGES chased the leading trio four then three wide into the turn, came out five to six deep for the stretch run and went evenly. BLUE BLAZES WHO was urged at the break, pressed the pace three wide and was empty late. RED OR GREEN failed to threaten. ABBIE'S WAY was not a factor.
