Footnotes

NEW YORK GROOVE stalked the early leader down the entire backstretch, bid for the lead midway on the turn and collared the front runner as they turned for home, had a length by the three sixteenths pole and widened under a hand ride. MOM'S RED LIPSTICK broke out at the start and moved over to trail the field on the rail, advanced quickly up the inside to sit nestled in behind the front runner while under restraint, came off the rail in upper stretch to get by the tiring leader, holding the place spot stubbornly late. TORTUGA broke with her head in the air and fell off the pace, advanced three wide to tail the leader by the quarter pole, no match for that one's finish and unable to get by the stubborn place holder late. BATTLEOFWINTERFELL let a rival take the early lead, came off the inside to stalk that rival allowing the eventual place finisher the fence, was two to three wide chasing on the turn, dipped back inside in upper stretch and seemed to be stymied looking for room late, settling for a minor award. ANN OF CLEVES fell off the pace before mounting a four to five wide circling rally on the turn, looming dangerously in upper stretch but stalling inside the final furlong. LA PAQUITA was off the pace along the inside, came two to four wide on the turn and widest at the top of the stretch but ran evenly from that point to the wire without entering contention. IMA BEAST was allowed to lead, kept the front until challenged late turn and early stretch, falling back from the three sixteenths pole to the wire.
